As Jews we have an obligation to determine how to honor halakhah while responding to contemporary questions and social concerns. I feel very privileged to be a keynote speaker at this year's Harvard conference on Progressive Halakha, where I'll share what's titled "Incremental Change and Paradigm Shifts: Pathways Forward for Progressive Halakhah." The conference is bringing together an impressive group of scholars, mentors, and teachers to drive these conversations forward with respect. I am excited for us to bring back our insights to our respective communities as we continue to create Jewish spaces expansive enough to hold both sensitivity to our current moment and accountability to the eternal values of Jewish law. I hope you will join me at this conference if you are able; your voice will surely add an important dimension to this rich conversation.

Sincerely,

Rabbi Ethan Tucker
President and Rosh Yeshiva at Hadar
